solemnization, and (c) fees for late registration of birth, marriage and death.

SECTION 3. Submission of Compliance Requirements. The availing individual shall submit to the Local Civil Registrar's Office a Certification issued by the City Social Welfare and Development Officer attesting that he is a resident of the City and that he is a destitute, needy and poor pursuant to the above qualification requirements. In the alternative, the availing individual may submit to the Local Civil Registrar's Office (a) a Certification issued by the concerned Punong Barangay attesting that the availing person is a resident of the barangay and an indigent based on the above income requirement, and (b) a City Assessor's Certification attesting to the above property requirement. Said certifications shall be issued free of charge. In case of doubt, the City Civil Registrar may further require the submission of an Income Tax Return or Certificate as non-tax filer from BIR and a Provincial Assessor's Certification.

For purposes of the CSWDO Certification, the applicant shall submit himself for an interview at the CSWDO to determine his eligibility through the filling up of Intake Sheet. If initially found eligible, he may still be required to submit the documents referred to above. Upon verification of the authenticity of the above requirements, the required Certificate of Indigency shall be issued to the applicant.

Provided, that if the applicant is a Sanggawadan beneficiary holding a Privilege Card issued pursuant to Ordinance No. 2008-092, the above requirement shall not be required of him. He is automatically considered an indigent within the meaning and contemplation of this ordinance.

SECTION 4. Applicability. This ordinance shall apply even to pending applications which have not yet been fully paid.

SECTION 5. Penalty Clause. Any misrepresentation concerning the income and property requirements provided in Section 1 hereof that is done for the purpose of availing of the benefit under this ordinance and upon proof thereof shall be punished as follows:
