EXPLANATORY NOTE

WHEREAS, the Sangguniang Kabataan Reform Act (Republic Act No. 10742) only grants honoraria to Sangguniang Kabataan Chairmen, leaving an express provision as to the honoraria of SK Kagawad, SK Secretaries and SK Treasurers;

WHEREAS, the City of Naga fully recognizes the vital role of the youth in nation-building, acknowledges that the Sangguniang Kabataan is an important vehicle for youth involvement in policy- and decision-making processes of the government and, thus, seeks to maximize this institution as a partner in the city's equitable and sustainable socio-economic development.

WHEREAS, per Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Opinion No. 19, s. 2010, SK officials are considered elective barangay officials;

WHEREAS, Section 393 of the Local Government Code of 1991 (Republic Act No. 7160) provides that barangay officials may receive "such other emoluments as may be authorized" by law or city ordinance;

WHEREAS, considering the aforesaid absence of specific provision on honoraria for SK Kagawads, SK Secretaries and SK Treasurers, and given that their works and contributions are
