VVVVVVVVVVVVVVVVVVV

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER III AND OTHER PERTINENT SECTIONS OF ORDINANCE NO. 2004-123, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE “REVISED REVENUE CODE OF NAGA CITY”:-

Sponsor: The Committee on Ways and Means
Hon. Esteban Greg R. Abonal III
Hon. Jose A. Tuason
Hon. Elmer S. Baldemoro

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Even as Ordinance No. 2004-123 claimed to have been revisions and codifications of the various revenue ordinances of the City at that time, verily many of the indicated fees and charges in reality were merely carried over from earlier ordinances dating back to 1997, way back even to 1993. Though there have been a handful of minor revisions to that ordinance, City Hall still uses most of the fees and charges of a decade ago for its current regulation and services.

In a decade’s time, Naga City has developed and progressed by leaps and bounds. Business count has risen by over a thousand, from 4,500 to 6,400. Recognition and awards continue to pour in for good governance. The social services are exemplary. Housing and resettlements benefit now over 9,000 households in 68 sites while three more sites are in the works. City scholars number 539 in the tertiary level while over 22,000 elementary and secondary level students from 14,000 families benefit from City Government subsidies. The City Hospital has expanded its facilities and services and a lying-in clinic will be operational for the upper barangays in no time. What used to be flood-prone areas in the city are no longer inundated even in heavy rains.

For Naga City to sustain progress and development, it must ensure its resources. With its taxes at a steady pace and its internal revenue allotment receding, the City cannot continue to fund its 2014 social services and regulatory functions at 2004 charges and fees. It has long become necessary to adjust its fees and charges to keep up with inflation and keep its services up .

Be it ordained by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Naga that:
